When Taxes Become Delinquent.
We have been requested by the Sheriff to call attention to the fact that the time for paying taxes was extended by the law of 1873 to the 1st day of January, instead of the 1st day of December, as generally believed.
No per centage can be charged, nor can personal property be levied on till the first day of January 1875 for the taxes due for the fiscal year 1874.
The following extract from an Act of the Legislature of 1873, page 90, controls Sheriff Winslow in making this announcement:
"Section 2. Be it further enacted, That all taxes remaining unpaid on the first day of January of each year shall be collected by distress and sale of personal property; and if no personal property can be found, then by sale of land as heretofore provided by law, and that the taxes on lands delinquent for taxes shall be reported to the Board of Supervisors on or before the second Monday of January, instead of the first Monday in December, as now provided by law."
The Tax-Payers' League.
The Tax-Payers' League of Washington county met as by appointment at the Court-house in Greenville, on the 27th inst.—immediately upon the adjournment of citizens meeting.
C. W. Lewis, President in the chair. The report of the committee on Constitution and By-Laws being in order. The said committee made their report which with little alteration was adopted. The initiation fee being one dollar, and in the event of the application being unable to pay this amount, he shall be received into the "League." A number of gentlemen being very earnest in the success of the organization subscribed larger amounts and before the adjournment quite a sum was handed to the Treasurer. The Executive Committee being well apprised of the duty devolving upon them, the meeting adjourned, subject to the call of the Executive Committee.
C. W. Lewis, President.
D. L. STONE, Secretary.
Storm at Tusculum, Alabama.
The town of Tusculum, Alabama, was visited by a fearful storm on Sunday night, November 22. It came on while the people were at supper, with a sound like thunder, and though it lasted but a minute, it destroyed several lives and five hundred thousand dollars worth of property. Among the killed were Mrs. ex-Governor Winston, who was found dead beneath the ruins of her house, and the wife of State Senator Moore. Mrs. Moore was found on a bed, with two heavy timbers lying on her, and two children under her, all dead, and crushed out of shape. Two other children were rescued alive. Mr. H. Perkins, his wife and four children were found dead beneath the wreck of their house.
The Tax Payers' Convention.
The adjourned meeting of the tax paying citizens of Washington county met pursuant to appointment at the Court House in Greenville on Friday, the 27th instant, Charles T. Worthington in the chair. The committee to solicit the aid of the tax payers in the several magisterial districts, and also the town of Greenville and vicinity, made their reports and the same were accepted. About two hundred and fifty signatures were attached to the resolutions which had been acted upon at the previous meeting.
The number of citizens present being quite large, (white and colored both being well represented) it was moved that the object of the meeting be thoroughly explained for the benefit of those not familiar with the proceedings of the former meeting.
The following gentlemen, Messrs. Percy, N. B. Johnson, Wade Hampton, Archer, L. B. Vallant and Ferguson being called upon, entered into a full and free explanation of the objects to be accomplished by a united action of the people in resisting the "Tax Gatherer."
Some little opposition was manifested in the early part of the meeting, but upon a correct representation of the wrongs and the manner of remedy, coupled with such an honest determination on the part of all present to do all in their power to overthrow the present system of oppression all soon became of one mind.
On motion Messrs. Percy, Paxton, Thomas Redd and Bolton, with Messrs. Matt. F. Johnson, Archer, Bourges and General French as alternates were selected to go to Jackson to attend the State Convention of Tax Payers to meet there on 4th January.
It was further moved that the Secretary of this meeting be required to correspond forthwith with the State Executive Committee and urge upon them the assembling of the Convention on the 21st December, in order to have a voice from the tax payers throughout the State prior to the meeting of the Legislature.
The numerical strength of the tax payers in harmony with the meeting was called for and reported.
On motion of Colonel Percy, the meeting adjourned to give way to the Tax Payers' League, which was in waiting to go to business.
CHARLES T. WORTHINGTON, President.
D. L. STONE, Secretary.

The Supreme Court and Board of Levee Commissioners.
H. G. D. Brown, Board of Levee Commissioners.
This was a suit in chancery brought by the Board of Levee Commissioners, under the provisions of an Act of the Legislature approved March 1872. The complainant was created a body corporate "for the purpose of rebuilding, strengthening, or elevating the old levees in the counties of Bolivar, Washington and Issaquena," and by the terms of the act an annual tax was imposed upon all the lands in the counties until 1879, for that purpose, which was a lien upon the land. To enforce collection the collector was authorized on the second Monday of April to sell the lands of delinquents for cash—and on the failure of other parties to bid the amount due, then the lands should be struck off to the Treasurer of the Board. From year to year a large number of sales were made and bid in by the Board; many of which lands are still held by the Board.
The prayer of the bill is that the Court will decree a sale of the "lands, or such parts and parcels thereof, for the amount of taxes due thereon," etc.
The statute under which these lands are sold provided among other things, "That the Board of Levee Commissioners should file in the Chancery Court . . . their petition against all persons claiming or having any interest, either legal or equitable, in and to said lands," praying that said lands be sold for the payment of all taxes in arrear thereon, etc. "Nor shall the State, or any party, person or corporation, interested therein be made defendants by name, designation or description." The notice of the suit is required to be published in the "a public newspaper published at Jackson, directed to 'all parties or persons having any interest, legal or equitable, in and to said lands,' to appear, etc." and show cause why said lands should not be sold for taxes in arrear, etc. "or to redeem the same." This notice should be accompanied by a list of the lands filed with the petition.
This prayer was granted by the Chancellor, and the lands ordered to be sold. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court. This decree was reversed, and the act under which the land was decreed to be sold declared unconstitutional and void for the following reasons:
First—Because it proposes to bind and conclude the interests of persons in private property without designating them by name as defendants—without a good or any sufficient reason for such departure from the general law.
Second—Because it expressly denies personal service of process upon the defendants.
Third—Because in a personal suit it directs notice by publication without designating the defendants.
Fourth—Because it allows judgment against a very large but indefinite number of persons, who have, or may have, conflicting interests, whose rights may be different in origin and extent.
Fifth—Because the statute and the proceedings under it are unusual, extraordinary, and not calculated to afford a full investigation and proper determination of every separate controversy that might arise, but likely to result in wrong and injustice to many individuals.
Sixth—Because it has the tendency to give judicial sanction and thereby conclusiveness to a decree for the sale and transfer of property, when the Legislature itself was incompetent to direct the sale to be made.
Steamboat Disaster.
The steamer Empire loaded with sugar suddenly sank at her landing in New Orleans, in the night, last week; some 30 lives were lost. No cause has been discovered for this disaster.
After a very pleasant week, the wind shifted to the north this morning, and came as if from snowy regions. Marshall and Putnam, having coal to sell, are holding up for this cold weather, but we as a delinquent (poll) tax payer, pronounce it a fraud.
Colonel H. C. Robinson, Past Grand Lecturer of the Masonic Lodge of Mississippi, died near Crawfordville, Mississippi, on the 14th of November. Colonel Robinson lectured in Greenville Lodge a few years ago, and was highly esteemed by his brethren here.
A Georgia gentleman when condemned to be hung, begged the Sheriff not to put him in a chestnut coffin, as "he did not want to go through h—ll a poppin'."
The Knights Templar of the U. States held an assembly in New Orleans on the 1st of December.
The walls of Dr. Lewis's brick storehouse on Washington avenue are moving up, and in about four weeks he will occupy the largest and finest brick house in the city.
